Present were 8 guests, 3 speakers from Kitsap County Department of Public Works, and the following representatives and proxies: Sandra Larsen – The Better Halves; Bonnie Isaacs – Cliffside Homeowners Assoc.; Don Lynch – Eglon/Pilot Point; Linda Redling - Finn Creek Agricultural Community; Judy Foritano – Hansville Community Center and proxy for Norwegian Point Neighborhood; Lynn Hix – Hansville Arts Guild; Allen Otto – Hansville Business Community; Art Ellison – Hansville Greenway Association and proxy for Hansville Road Neighborhood; Dagmar Brauer – Hansville Ladies Aid; Fred Nelson Hansville Neighbors; Tom Ritley – Hood Canal Shores Neighborhood; Dennis Cziske – proxy for Point No Point/Hillview Neighborhood; Martha Pendergast – Point No Point View Estates; Becky Ellison – Shoreview Terrace Neighborhood; Jean Connolly – South Hood Canal Drive Neighborhood and Gene Borgomainerio – Thursday Breakfast Group.

Welcome and introductions of GHAAC members: Chair Art Ellison called the meeting to order at 7:00pm and restated the ground rules for GHAAC meetings.

Dennis Cziske gave the Kingston Ferry Advisory Committee Update: He said it is important that interested people attend the ferry meetings. The ferry people are receptive to public input and if no one attends, they think no one cares what is done. He asked members to consider nominations for the opening on the Transportation Commission.

Initial public comments: None

Approval of Minutes of Last Meeting Approved

Guest Speakers: Scheduled speaker Scott Diener is moved to the January meeting due to a conflict in his schedule.

Jim Rogers, Transportation Planning, described the county's method of evaluating proposed road projects for presentation to the County Commissioners. He distributed a list of projects with their rankings.

Chris May, Surface and Stormwater Management, reported on current issues. There are two projects in Driftwood Key scheduled for 2012-13.

Pat Campbell, Solid Waste Division, showed photos and described the recent improvements at the Hansville Transfer Station. There is a new building for the staff and there will be additional improvements to the parking surface and traffic flow. The cleanup action plan has been drafted and is about to go out for public comment. The facility at Poulsbo will add Hazardous Household Waste collection once or twice a month.

GHAAC Committee Presentation/Updates

There were reports of mail thefts along Hood Canal Drive. The Commissioners are scheduled to hear a proposal from the Traffic Department to lower the speed limit to 30mph on the west end of Cliffside Road. There remains a need for a wheel chairs with foot rests that raise to avoid bending the leg. It was reported that there is a vaccine available against whooping cough which is occurring throughout the area. An Outstanding Citizen award will be presented at the November Neighbor's Lunch. The horsemen will help the Greenways with trail building and maintenance. Feral Dogs still around, as well as other animals. Walkers and hikers should stay alert.

New Issues/updates on prior issues

Dog/horse committee—Moved to January

New By-Laws—Judy Foritano presented a final draft of the revised by-laws for comment and approval. Fred Nelson moved and Becky Ellison seconded that they be adopted; the motion was amended to provide for the removal of an unnecessary comma. The corrected by-laws were approved unanimously.
